

St John the Evangelist

5th Sunday after Trinity

Signpost Weekly

21st July 2019

Dear Friends,

As August and the holiday high season approaches, we welcome many who are visiting our area and hope they enjoy a restful, relaxing and safe time in our region. Liz will take a break from admin in August, devoting her time to the boys. She has settled in to her new role well and we look forward to her return in September. There will be no signpost during August, but all the readings are being printed on a separate sheet. I shall be around on and off during August, but will be moving at some point. I'll be back for my final service on Sunday 1st September. I'm sure more details for that day will emerge soon. Please keep Dan and Sarah, Lynne and Chris in your prayers, as they support each other during the vacancy. Preb Sharon

Always with us

On 20 July 1969 the world watched something extraordinary. This was when the Eagle lunar module landed on the Moon's Sea of Tranquility. This was the very first time that anyone had been to the moon. But astronauts Neil Armstrong and Buzz Aldrin had to do something hard. After years of preparation and their long and hazardous flight they had to wait. They were about to open the door of their lunar lander and step onto the unknown surface of a completely different world. But for now, their mission ordered them to take a pause, to wait and prepare for that 'First step'. That hour-long downtime period was designed to let the astronauts recover from their space flight and prepare for their moon walk.

It is now well known that Buzz Aldrin spent his time praying, reading the Bible and taking Holy Communion. Aldrin was an elder at Webster Presbyterian Church, and before he headed into space in 1969, he got special permission to take bread and wine with him into space and to give himself communion. As the men prepared for the next phase of their mission, Aldrin spoke to the ground crew back on Earth. "I would like to request a few moments of silence," he said. "I would like to invite each person listening in, wherever and whomever they may be, to contemplate for a moment the events of the past few hours and to give thanks in their own individual way."

He then reached for the wine and bread he'd brought to space—the first foods ever poured or eaten on the moon. "I poured the wine into the chalice our church had given me. In the one-sixth gravity of the moon the wine curled slowly and gracefully up the side of the cup," he later wrote. The words he read were those of Jesus: 'I am the vine, you are the branches. Whoever remains in me, and I in you, will bear much fruit, for you can do nothing without me.'

After the resurrection, as Jesus ascended back to heaven, he gave a promise to his disciples that he would be with them always, wherever they were and wherever they went. As Buzz Aldrin took communion on the Moon, he too was aware of that promise. It is a promise that is also true for us today and so whatever each day may bring let us remember to 'wait' before we step out into the day and ask that Jesus may indeed be with us. As we say in Communion: 'The Lord is here.' 'His Spirit is with us.'

With warm greetings,

The Right Revd Peter Hancock, Bishop of Bath and Wells

SERMON SERIES

From 28th July we shall begin a short sermon series focusing on mission in our wider community and what it means to live out our faith every day.

- 28th July Telling our story.
- 4th August Nurturing our faith.
- 11th August Caring for the vulnerable.
- 18th August Speaking out for justice.
- 25th August Caring for God's creation.

OFFICE CLOSURE

From the week commencing 22nd July the parish office will not be staffed due to the new office opening hours being term time only however please do leave a message on the answer machine which will be checked regularly or contact Rev. Sharon or Rev. Dan.

FOODBANK

Thank you if you contribute to the foodbank. If you are a regular contributor or are able to give occasional please note that the following items are currently needed:

- tinned fruit (400gms)
- tea bags (80's)
- Fruit Juice (long life)
- UHT milk (1 litre)
- Breakfast Cereals

We have plenty of beans and soup!!

Do you want answers to the following questions?

- When is the next music marathon?
- Who will be our next priest?
- How will Dan cope without Sharon?
- Why haven't we had a flower festival?
- Why did the Sunday School close?
- What does it actually cost to run this church?
- When is the next church fair?
- Why don't we do more for the baptism families?
- Who visits the sick?
- How can we get more involved with Churchfield School?

These are the questions the PCC need to be addressing, but with only six members rather than twelve it is very difficult. Help St John's find the answers by being part of the leadership team of St John's which is the PCC. Please speak to Rev Sharon or to Chris Perry (Church warden)

Somerset time for youth
